Example of a network map
* lines show which organisations are linked in some way * thickness of line indicates the frequency the link is used * most frequent links occur between the doctor and hospital
* some organisations are not directly linked, eg. neighbourhood house has no direct links with the hospital