

Barriers to home care for older adults from perspectives of Iranian informal caregivers: A qualitative study

Interview guide

Main items	What barriers can make care more difficult?
	What are the shortcomings at family, community, and society levels that make home care for the elderly difficult?
	What are your expectations from your families and relatives, organization, institutions and government?
Probe questions	What training does a caregiver need?
	What support does a caregiver need?