1. Home
2. Community/Anganwadi
3. Primary healthcare centre
4. District hospital with nutritional rehabilitation centre

Traditional and spiritual healers
Home remedies

- Screening children for SAM
- Periodic anthropometric checks – Weight, Height, Mid-upper arm circumference
- Food supplementation by ICDS: <3 years - take home ration, >3 years - Hot cooked meal
- Health and nutritional counseling to mothers
- Dissemination of nutrition and health information through village health and nutrition days

- Meetings with outreach workers
- Monthly SAM camps
- Provision of medicines as required: Antibiotics, Antihelmintics, Vitamin and mineral syrups, Protein powder
- Nutrition advice and counseling
- Referral to NFIC
- Follow up on malnourished children

- Assessments
- Anthropometry
- Appetite test
- Admission if complicated (minimum stay of 14 days)
- Addressing emergency conditions in complicated cases: Medical treatment, Nutritional therapy, Stabilization - F75, Rehabilitation - F100 followed by nutrient dense meal
- Health and nutrition counselling
- Training of parents on diet, food preparation and hygiene
- Wage compensation for caregivers