Appendix 3: Development of the sensory screening package – Phase 1

Scoping Review
- developing a comprehensive list of hearing and vision tests suitable for older adults that have been used either clinically or in research

Environmental Scan
- identifying tools, technologies, and strategies currently being used by front line staff, optometrists and audiologists working in LTC

Consultation with Experts
- informed by the data gathered in the scoping review and environmental scan, establishing consensus on a screening package by use RAND/UCLA Appropriateness method with panel experts